and the bookmakers, there ore, did not profit so largely as usual at the expense of the public. Some owners, as the close of the racing season draws near, are eager to sell their horses. Blohm & Co. have sold Little Minch to R. W. Themas, and they let Adon's go to James Rowe after the fourth race for $1,500.

Lizzie Kropps led in the beiling and at the finish of the first race. Fertunately her weight was too low for Mechan to pote, and she won easily in 1:15. Her speed was in strange sontrast to her slowness on Saturday. A change of jockeys sometimes works wonders. But the filly's poor running on eLaughin on Bessie June so much the best of it, as he was full speed in front when the flag fell, that to mee was settled than and there. Little O'Brien, he rode R. P. Ashe's filly Vera, struck her a tinging blow in the second furlong. The nervous, excitable illy was close to the inner rail and awerved into it, falling fith great force. The boy went rolling over and over, but was not a bit hurt and rode Mr. Ashe's colt King of Norfol was not a bit hurt and rode Mr. Ashe's colt. King of Norfolk to victory in the fourth race. Poor Vera was fatally injured, and though she limped to her stable she soon died there. She was a pretty, graceful filly, with fair speed, and Mr. Ashe prized her highly. The jockey should have been flogged himself for striking her at such a time and place. The whip should be used rarely if at all on delicate, sensitive two-year-olds, especially fillies, and only in a close finish. But the reckless, stupid and brutal boys when many appears put on their horses. Are capable of boys whom many owners put on their horses are capable of any cruelty and any folly.

Eligin was the third and last favorite to Win, O'Fallon running second to King of Norfolk in the next race. Mr. Ashe

Becky B, was a strong favorite for the last rees, and would have win if the boy in her sadule had been born with wits the carried only 31 pounds. Of course, she should have run out and got as far as she could from Hurefoot—a fast sprinter, but with 112 pounds. Charleston kept Becky B. under a allowing Harefoot to catch her in the hom retch, a d then tried to beat Hare oot at the finish. A suckuld " finish " better than Charleston did. his two wors, are constantly pursuing him with the object of taking his life. He thinks they are all in the room with him, chasing him a sound, and he talls on his knees and beseeches these to spare him, and implores any one who may be present to saye him from them. He also his the impression that all these persons are at the sane time in his body, and are slowly and surely killing him.

Dr. Nichols indications of paralysts of the brain found in the insense that Mr. Campbell has brain found in the insense. The demented man believes that he holds direct communication with Wagner, Shakespear, Crivy, Humbert an others, and that he receives see cific replies from them to the words that he addresses to the n. He thinks that brigands are pursuing him, and believes sometimes that he is talking with queen Victoria from his window. At other these he imagines that he is visiting Hesven and meets famous people there. As strange as any other of his ballocantions is one that Oliver Cromwell has taken up his permanent abode in his abdomen. The dector says that Mr. Campbell's mental and physical condition is such that at world probably greatly disturb and injure him if he were taken to court in this proceeding.

The investigation, at which Mr. Campbell will not be present, will begin next Thurstey at 4 p. m., and as there can be no opposition to the proceeding it is likely to be brief, constaints simply of testimony substantiating the statements in the athilaxits submitted. Mr. Campbell, according to the accounts of those who have been with him, is in a deplerable condition. He is greatly reduced in firsh, his eyes are hollow, his cheex sunken and his actions those of a man whose reasoning faculties have permanently described him. Justice Andrews was usequently appointed crimest Harvier receiver of the rents of Mr. Campbell's property in Eighty first, pending a suit for the foreclosure of the mortgage on the house brought by Worl, Dazian & Co.

A CAPRICIOUS BURGLAR IN SING SING.

Frederick Hyatt, of Brooklyn, went with his wife to spend a few days with his son-in-law, Joseph Hubbell, who lives in Linden-ave. Sing Sing. At about 1 o'clock yesterday morning Mr. Hyatt was awakened by learning some one walking around in the rooth. Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt lighted their lamp and discovered that Mr. Hyatt strongers had been sloten. They contained about 50 in chance. It was found that the house had been entered through a bay window on the first floor. While the party was scarching the thief stipped back and stole Mr. Hyatt's coat and waistcoat containing a watch, gold eye-glasses and valuable papers. Yesterday morning Mr. Hyatt had to lie in bed because he had no clothes. While the family were consulting, Mrs. Hubbell found the missing trongers on the foor inside the bay window. The money was all gone. After breakfast a young daughter of William Gale, who lives around the corner, appeared with a coat and waistcoat on her arm. These garments were the missing ones. The girl said that she found them nicely rolled up on a chair on the front perch. Upon searching the pockets Mr. Hyatt found everything just as le had left it the night before. His watch was undisturbed.

A recent ordinance of the Common Council imposed a license of $5 on organ grinders. Several Italians were ar-rested for violating the ordinance. Yesterday twelve Italians applied to the Mayor for licences to grind organs and paid the fee. the fee.

County Physician Hewlett yesterday made an examination of the body of Edward H-Underhill, of Irvington, who died after he had been thrown down stairs by Chartes Owens, also of Irvington. The doctor thought there was no nount that the man's injurice had been received in the tussle. No inquest will be held.

LONG ISLAND.

LONG ISLAND.

NEW-UTRECHT.—The purchase of a considerable tract of land near the outskirts of Brooklyn, between Fortleth and Frity-third sta, and Twelfth and Eighteenth aves, near the line of the Brooklyn, Bath and West End Railroad, has been completed by a syndicate of New-York and Finhadelphia capitalists, who have paid about $250,000 for $1,000 lots streets will be opened and graded, water pipes and sewers will be laid, and the erection of houses has aiready begun. It is expected to have speedy communication with New York by the new Thirty-ninth-at ferry.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY. WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

Sing Sisg.—Richard Delaney, a night keeper in the prison, got drunk yesterday, went into Broad Avenue School and began making fan for the scholars. The teacher ordered him out and he laughed at her, informing her that if she didn't be have herself he should have to whip her. She said: "You can't do it." "Well, anyway," he said, "I et me run the school this afterneon." An officer was called and the intruder was taken away. In the afterneon Judge Reynolds fined him $25.

EAST CHESTER.—Miss Martha Wilson, of Mt. Vernon, has given $3,000 for a stone spire on St. Paul's Church.

MR. MARTINE AND MR. COMAN. MR. MARTINE AND MR. COMAN.

District-Attorney Martine denied with emphasis the statements published yesterday that he had decided to reinstate Chief Clerk John M. Coman in consequence of political pressure by Police Justice White and others, and that Judge Gildersleeve and Assistant District-Attorney Nicoli had done something which they should not have done, but the nature of which was not stated except that Judge Gildersleeve was supposed to have acted from a friendship for ex-Commissioner Squire. Mr. Martine said:

Squire. Mr. Martine said :
" Mr. White only spoke to me once "Mr. White only spoke to me once about Mr. Coman's resignation and then he only asked that the matter be fully investigated. He never threatened me with the loss of his friendship if Mr. Coman were not reinstated, and said, in fact, that if there was any wrong-doing on Mr. Coman's parthe would be the first to urge his dismissal. I have investigated the matter but have come to no conclusion. I may cide in a few days whether to reinstate Mr. Comaths had to Judge Gildersleeve, the map simply lies who says that he has ever asked any favor for Squire from me or my associates."

The published statements were also indigmantly denied by Judge Gildersleeve, who said: "I have not have do with Mr. Coman's removal, and in fact, I have said to Mr. Marine that so far as I have observed, and I have send to Mr. Coman, he has been most faithful and sinclent. Wheever anys that I have asked any favor of the District Attorney for Mr. Squire tells a deliberate lie."

RELIEF FOR STARVING PEOPLE IN TEXAS. The Rev. John Brown, of Albany, Shackelford County Texas, is in this city soliciting aid for sufferers from prolonged The Rev. John Brown, of Albany, Shackelford County, Texas, is in this city soliciting aid for sufferers from prolonged drough in the northwestern part of the State. He describes the condition of thousands of poor farmers there as bordering on starvation. For fifteen months, he says, no rain fell, Within a few days, however, the drouth has been broken. The needy have been living on the charity of people in other sections of the State, and this support will be continued in the hope that the next season will bring relief. Mr. Brown has been selected by a committee to come North and obtain money to enable farmers to procure seed wheat, about 100,000 bushels of which can be distributed if secured. He says that the Chicago Board of Trade responded to his appeal by dividing with the people in the afflicted section the subscriptions originally made to the fund of the Charleston sufferers, and at a citizen's meeting called by the Mayor it was decided that the general fund sould likewise be divided. Mr. Brown visited Buffalo, where an active movement is also going forward. He now appeals to the people of New-York through the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions. Dr. Kendall and Dr. Roberts, secretaries of the Board, will receive contributions in this behalf at the rooms of the board, No. 280 Broadway. Mr. Brown says that the ground in the parched region is new in fair condition for seeding, and if the means for purchasing the seed are forthcoming good crops may be raised the coming season, and the people find permanent and substantial relief thereby.

PUNERAL OF ASHER B. DURAND

The funeral of Asher B. Durand, the Well-known artist, who died on September 17, took place in All Souls' Church, in of Design and the Century Club. The service was conducof Design and the Century Cub. The service was connected by the Rev. Louis P. E. DAY BARKER, Esq. 10 Murrayst. V. Y. City.

My Dear Sir and Friend:—The Kaskine you procured for me and forwarded from your city did me more benefit than any remedy I have ever taken. I have surfered with chills since 1865, whether on the flats of our cannot section, on the hills or among the mountains. The have had before chill, very slight. Liver has acted the large and freely enough. I have increased twenty pounds in weight and have not felt as well in a number of years as have for the past month. I think it an excellent medicine. The improvement from its use in my case is remarkable. I shall be glad to have you send me another bottle. Traily your friend.
